

The CornPalace is the only one in the world in Mitchell South Dakota. There are about 200 to 500 thousand people that go there a year. They have a rodeo in July and lots of other fun festivals and other things. The corn palace was made in 1892. Then was rebuilt in 1905 and then rebuilt again in 1921. All the decorations costed right around 130 thousand dollars.
