

This is Aberdeen

Aberdeen is a big city that has a lot of people living there. They have 1 airport. Aberdeen is in South Dakota and about 125 miles north of Pierre. There are over about 30 places named Aberdeen all over the world. The self-seal envelope was in Aberdeen. The Waterloo Bridge and the Terraces of the House of Parliament were built in Aberdeen. The Union Street is named to commemorate the Union of Britain and the Ireland. The more medieval coin hoards have been found in Aberdeen than anywhere else in Britain. The Kirk of St. Nicholas houses the largest carillon in Britain. The Aberdeen football club has been there ever since 1903. 640,000 cubic feet of Aberdeen went into construction of the fourth rail bridge. Almost half of the recoverable oil reserves in the North Sea have still to be developed.

